Welcome Note!

Dear Delegates,

On behalf of the AFAM Executive Committee and the Local Conference Organizing Committee, it is our great pleasure to welcome you to the 8th Biennial Africa Academy of Management Conference, and to our wonderful host city of Casablanca.

We gather at a moment when organizations across Africa and the world face a constellation of interconnected societal grand challenges ranging from persistent poverty and digital divides to ecological fragility, demographic pressures, and shifting patterns of innovation and entrepreneurship. These challenges are complex, deeply contextual, and often ill-defined, requiring interdisciplinary perspectives, methodological diversity, and research that is firmly grounded in African realities. The theme of this year's conference, "The Art of Collaboration: Addressing Grand Challenges in Africa Through Research, Education, Practice and Policy Making," underscores AFAM's commitment to convening scholars and practitioners who can collectively rethink these issues. It invites us to cross disciplinary boundaries, reflect on innovative pedagogical approaches, strengthen links between academia and practice, and work with policymakers to shape solutions that are both contextually relevant and globally significant.

Our program reflects this ambition. Across paper sessions, panel discussions, poster presentations and professional development workshops, delegates will engage with a rich body of work that advances both management theory and practice in African contexts. This includes contributions that not only deepen our understanding of African organizational phenomena but also push global management scholarship toward more inclusive theorizing. Since our inaugural conference hosted by the Gordon Institute of Business Science (GIBS), the Africa Academy of Management has continued to grow in scope and influence. Our flagship journal, the Africa Journal of Management (AJOM), has become a leading outlet for rigorous and impactful research on management in Africa, and this conference continues that tradition of excellence.

We hope you find the sessions intellectually stimulating, the discussions generative, and the connections you build enduring. We also hope you enjoy the vibrant cultural and social experiences that the local organizing committee has thoughtfully prepared.

Welcome once again, and we wish you a productive and inspiring conference.

About the Africa Academy of Management (AFAM)

The Africa Academy of Management (AFAM) is a professional group of academics and practitioners interested in management scholarship and teaching in Africa. The primary purpose of AFAM is the development and improvement of members' capabilities for research and teaching of management in organizations in Africa. ## The Africa Academy of Management (AFAM) Awards

| Award   | Description   |
|---|---|
| Emerald Africa Academy of Management Trailblazer Award | The Emerald Africa Academy of Management Trailblazer Award was set up by the Africa Academy of Management (AFAM) to recognize a scholar of the academy who has taken a leadership role in the promotion of and advancement of scholarship and/or teaching on management in Africa. Candidates of the academy should have distinguished themselves not only in making a significant contribution to organizational phenomena in Africa using scientific methods but also in the development and improvement of research and teaching of management in organizations in Africa. Actions that may indicate "trailblazing" behavior include exemplary research contributions to knowledge about management issues in Africa; moving forward a content-related journal or scholarly series or advancing management education through an innovative, novel intervention. |
| The Stella Nkomo Junior Faculty Award                  | This award, named, Stella Nkomo Award for Best Paper published in the Africa Journal of Management by a Junior African Scholar, is intended to honor Prof. Stella Nkomo, the first President of the Africa Academy of Management (AFAM). It was established at the 4th Biennial Conference in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. The Stella Nkomo Award for the Best Paper by a Junior African Scholar, henceforth (SNABJAS) will be selected by the Editor-in-Chief and his team each calendar year beginning in 2018.   |
| The AJOM Fellowship Award                              | The Africa Journal of Management (AJOM) Junior Faculty Fellowship is awarded annually to a qualified junior (early career) Faculty member from an Africa-based university to attend the Academy of Management (AOM) annual conference or other appropriate international conference to present a paper co-authored with a senior academic from an international business school. The Fellowship seeks to assist a junior (early career) academic at an Africa-based university who has published in the Africa Journal of Management (AJOM) or presented a paper at Africa Academy of Management (AFAM) to undertake collaborative research with a senior academic through a mentorship relationship.
