

AFAM Webinar Series

Managing and leading Educational Institutions in Africa during Covid-19

Date: September 4, 2020

Time

11:00-12:30 EST

15:00 – 16:30 GMT)

5:00 – 6:30 BST

5:00 – 6:30 SAST

Registration

- 1) Click Here
- 2) Then, “View Event Details”
- 3) Register

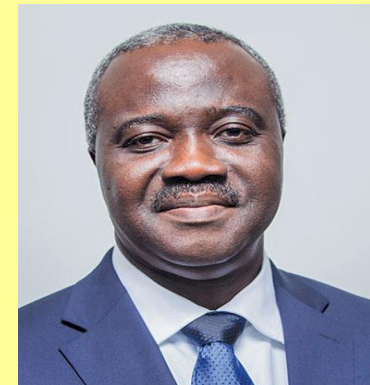

This webinar invites members of the Africa Academy of Management (AFAM) to reflect on the effects and challenges of COVID-19 on educational institutions in Africa. The webinar will explore:

- A) How COVID-19 has affected educational institutions in Africa
- B) How administrators are managing during the pandemic
- C) Recommendations for coping during the pandemic

PANELISTS

Prof. Sherif Kamel
Dean, AUC School of Business,
American University in Cairo,
Egypt

Prof. John Gyapong
Vice Chancellor,
University of Health and
Allied Sciences at HO
Ghana

Prof. Bill B. Puplambu
Vice Chancellor,
Central University
Ghana

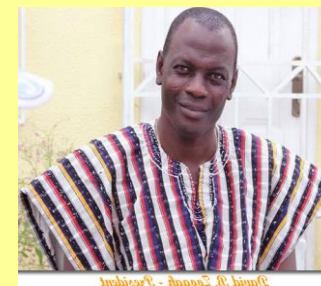

Prof. Bradley Googins
Boston College
E4IMPACT
USA

MODERATORS

Prof. Stella Nkomo
Past President, AFAM

Dr. Baniyelme D. Zoogah
President, AFAM